Information Regarding Residential Schools

 Please ignore the website link I provided you. There has been updated since last year, and the information has changed significantly.

1. Please just answer the questions on the next slide in complete sentences.
2. Each group member is responsible for their own answers. However, you may collaborate on one Google Doc.
3. We will go over these questions during our Novel Study Meeting on Friday.
4. A simple Google search should provide you with all the necessary information.

Questions

- Who is Daniel Paul?
- Where was the residential school in Nova Scotia?
- What age did you have to be to fit the need to be taken for the residential schools?
- Who is Nora Bernard? What did she accomplish?
- What is Daniels response to Harpers apology? How does this represent the larger of the whole?
- How many people have died through the atrocities of residential schools?

Poems about Residential Schools

- Interpret what the poems are discussing.
- What segment of each poem stuck out to you as powerful? Why?
- Research time: Using the Chrome Books complete the following tasks;
- Locate 4 facts of interest regarding the topic of your poem and those involved.
- First, share your 4 facts of interest with your group. Then, share them with the class.
