

Africville Case Study – Lessons Learned & Recommendations for the Future

Assignment Objective:

- Understand the historical significance of Africville
- Analyze the social and ethical issues involved
- Reflect on lessons learned from the case
- Propose recommendations to prevent similar injustices in the future

Instructions:

- Write a well-organized written response addressing the following sections. Use full sentences and clear paragraphs.

Requirements

- Length: 600-800 words
- Use clear, respectful language
- Support your ideas with examples from the case study
- Proper spelling and grammar

Assessment Criteria

- Understanding of the Africville case
- Depth of analysis and critical thinking
- Quality of lessons and recommendations
- Organization and clarity of writing
- Effort and completion of all sections

Part 1: Lessons Learned (1–2 paragraphs)

Explain at least three lessons that can be learned from the Africville case study. You may consider:

- The role of systemic racism
- Government neglect and responsibility
- The importance of community voice and participation
- The social and cultural impact of displacement

Part 2: Recommendations for the Future (1–2 paragraphs)

Provide practical recommendations that governments or communities could use to avoid similar situations in the future. You may include recommendations related to:

- Fair treatment of marginalized communities
- Community consultation and decision-making
- Urban planning and social justice
- Accountability and reparations

Part 3: Personal Reflection (1 paragraph)

In a short paragraph, reflect on:

- Why the Africville case study is important today
- How learning about Africville changed or deepened your understanding of justice, equality, or human rights